Hitch-Hike Women Accuse Each Other Killing Man

FAIRFIELD, Ill., Aug. 30.—A country sheriff paired two young women hitch-hikers against each other in obtaining mutual accusations Thursday of complicity in the slaying of Felix Shannon, 36-year-old Mont Erie, Ill., farmer.

Sheriff Ernest Burkett said the women—Jean Brooks and Beulah Hough—blamed each other for the slaying of Felix Shannon as he was in bed Sunday night.

The women, both married, left their Tennessee mountain homes several weeks ago to seek adventure on the road. Mrs. Brooks, 25, lives in Elizabethton, Tenn., and Mrs. Hough, 25, in Johnson City, Tenn.

Shannon's eighty-year-old son, Archie, identified them as the slayers.

CZECHS FIGURE SUDETEN ISSUE AS OWN FIGHT

PRAGA, Aug. 30.—While the British cabinet considered questions affecting peace, the Czechoslovak cabinet settled down today to the Sudeten German dispute, which it treated as a domestic affair.

The capital took the attitude that the broad international aspects of the problem were beyond its scope but that its own policy of finding a way out of the difficulty without driving Europe was a speedy adjustment of the minorities issue.
